

Patricia Ann Baca

Sept. 1958 - Feb. 3rd 2020

"I well know the thoughts that I am thinking toward you...thoughts of peace... to give you a future and a hope."
- Jer. 29:11

As with most of our precious loved ones who have left us in death, each one of us may have had our own special relationship with and memories of that person. Likewise, every person here today, most likely, has their own set of experiences and memories about our Patty. Her works and her reputation speak for themselves. She was loved and cherished by many.

We all look forward to the day when we have the opportunity to welcome Patty back into our arms along with other loved ones in the New World as promised by the Bible.

"For if we live, we live to Jehovah, and if we die, we die to Jehovah. So both if we live and if we die, we belong to Jehovah."

- Romans 14:8

Patricia's parents were Trinidad and Rose Baca. She was one of eight children and born and raised in Henderson, Nevada. Fondly known as Patty, she has been a dedicated Jehovah's Witness, baptized for 45 years.

Patricia's siblings Josie Olson, Manuel Baca, Bella Monteith, Theresa Casanova, her nieces and nephews thank you for your support and attendance today.

He will Call

“Sing out Joyfully” Song 151

13 O that in the Grave you would conceal me, that you would hide me until your anger passes by, that you would set a time limit for me and remember me!

14 If a man dies, can he live again? I will wait all the days of my compulsory service until my relief comes.

15 You will call, and I will answer you. You will long for the work of your hands.

- Job 14:13-15

(See also John 6:40; 11:11, 43; James 4:14)

1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.

All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.

If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.

For he will have a longing

For the work of his own hand.

So have faith, and do not wonder,

For our God can make us stand.

And we will live forever,

As the work of his own hand.

2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.

All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken.

Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.

For he will have a longing

For the work of his own hand.

So have faith, and do not wonder,

For our God can make us stand.

And we will live forever,

As the work of his own hand.
